

Comedian Chuck Burks

In 2013 he won over the audience and judges at the McDonald's Gospel Fest and walked away as Best Gospel Comedian. While that was an awesome experience, Chuck has been grabbing audiences by their funny bones for years using his gift to encourage, enlighten and uplift.

This funny guy has stepped on comedy club stages all across the country, written for nationally acclaimed comedy sketch television shows, been seen in major motion pictures, national commercial ads, cable network shows, and performed on stages from New York to London. Even though all of these experiences and opportunities have been amazing, he believes his most important tasks are honoring God and his role as a husband and father.
